

Śrī Vivekananda Suprabhātam (Mondays, Thursdays)

O Vivekananda, eternally regarded as courageous and good, O Great and Powerful one of the world who was completely detached and always in a state of bliss! We sing your glory, this auspicious morning.

You are a realized soul and spread your knowledge to one and all and mankind to follow the path of eternal truth and become liberated souls.

You held a specially elevated place in the heart of Sri Ramakrishna and were a very special person to the Divine Mother. This enabled you to succeed in upholding what you stood for.

You were the purest of the pure and you showed the downtrodden poor, the light and the way as Brahma. Through your compassion, you alleviated the sufferings of others by taking them on yourself.

You are beyond the realm of Maya. Show us the way to be rid of Maya and attain liberation through your wisdom and guidance, O Saviour of the world.

You are likened to Mahavishnu by those entangled in the cycle of births and deaths. You who know all and is aware of all, always, help us to acquire universal enlightenment.

The greatest among the saints, full of kindness, you show the way to pure consciousness. Your face is radiant as the sun.

You are happy, contented and peace-loving. You are the embodiment of discrimination. You carry out your duties courageously to fulfill karma. You are the embodiment of courage, and possess the qualities of Shiva.

O Destroyer of passion, remove the darkness of worldly desires from us. You who are pure and radiant always, protect us and show us the way out of our difficulties. O Discriminating one, give us mental peace.

O Patriot and world lover, with your inborn loving nature, you are able to protect mankind from the various temptations in their way. You are the personification of Brahma and Deva.

You stand for truth, O lotus-eyed one. Your heart is as big as the ocean. You grant us whatever we ask of you because of your kind-heartedness.

You hold a very lofty place in the life-story of Sri Ramakrishna. You are always in his heart. By meditating on Him, you realised Him. You were wholly absorbed in Him and Him alone.

May the All-pervading Lord be propitious to us. Adoration to Brahman, adoration to Thee, the controller of activities. Thou art verily the visible Brahman. Verily, I declare Thee to be the visible Brahman. The right will I speak. The truth will I speak. May Brahman protect me. May Brahman protect the preceptor. May He protect me. May He protect the preceptor. Om Peace, peace, peace.

Om. O Gods, may we hear with our ears what is auspicious. O Ye adorable ones, may we see with our eyes what is auspicious. May we sing praises to you and enjoy with strong limbs and body the life allotted by the gods.

Om. We pray and worship the Supreme Person for the welfare of all. May all miseries and shortcomings leave us for ever so that we may sing praises of Vishnu. Gayatri mantra

We meditate on the glorious effulgence of the Supreme Being, out of whom all this creation - the earth, heavens and beyond — has come into being. May He illumine our minds and hearts and guide our energies.

I worship You, O sweet Lord of transcendental Vision. O giver of prosperity to all, may I be free from the bonds of death, like a ripe fruit dropping from the tree. May I never again forget my immortal nature.

May we know (realise) Ramakrishna the Supreme Self. For that, may we meditate upon the Supreme Self. May that Supreme Self impel us towards it.

Śrī Śiva Prātaḥ Smaraṇa Stotram

I remember, in the morning, Gaṅgādhara Śiva, Who absolves the fear of rebirth, ruler of gods, having the bull as his vehicle, the consort of Ambikā (Pārvatī), possessing a club, a spear, granting boon and shelter to those who surrender to Him. He is Īśvara, who dispenses the medicine for the disease of the world, who is unique.

I salute Giriśa, whose half-body is adorned by Girijā (Pārvatī), who is the cause behind creation, maintenance and destruction, who is the primordial noble One, who rules over the world, who conquered the world by His charm, who dispenses the medicine for the disease of the world, who is unique.

I meditate on Śiva, the unique, the immeasurable, who is the primordial cause. He, the propagator of the Vedānta, the faultless, the greatest Being, free from differentiation due to name etc., free from six emotions and their derivatives, who dispenses the medicine for the disease of the world, who is unique.

Śrī Śiva Mānasa Pūjā

O Lord, be so kind as to accept my worship offered mentally. I prostrate you with the eight limbs, and sing various hymns of praise (The eight limbs of prostration {sashtanga namaskara} are the hands, legs, knees, chest, head, eyes, mind and speech).

O Sambhu, You are my Self, my intellect is Goddess Parvati, your attendants are my vital airs, my body is Your temple, all enjoyments of sense-objects are Your worship, my sleep is samadhi, all the movements of my feet are circumambulations of You, whatever I speak is praise of You, and thus whatever action I perform is Your worship. Note. When a devotee totally surrenders himself to God, then whatever he does is according to God's will. He gives up all sense of being a doer and and enjoyer.

Whatever wrongs I may have committed with my hands, feet, speech, body, ears, eyes, or mind, in any action whether prescribed (by the scriptures) or not, deign to forgive all of them, O Ocean of compassion, O Mahadeva, O Sambhu.
